ABOUT YOUR BRADDA NEWS

As you might have noticed, the Bradwell News has been changing a bit. We had a change of Editor, and then the company we used for printing moved and we had to find another local printing source.

Through all of this, the editor was posted overseas and had to edit the newsletter from a hotel in Abu Dhabi, which created a few logistics problems, but thanks to the marvels of modern technology and the hard work of everyone on the editorial team, we have been able to keep the presses rolling without interruption.

Sharp eyed readers will have noticed that we are now into our fourth year of publication, and we are grateful to our sponsors, the people who advertise with us, and particularly to all those of you who send in contributions. We try to make sure the newsletter has a well-balanced content and also try to steer clear of voicing opinions. This newsletter belongs to the village. It is intended to be not just a means of communicating events, but also a tool for the village to exchange ideas and opinions.

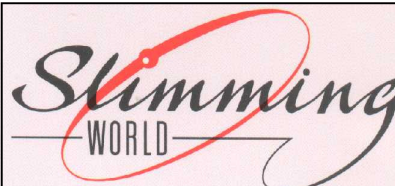

Please keep your contributions rolling in. Although we can't always print everything which is sent, we do try to get most of it published, even though sometimes we might have to edit submissions to make them fit. Whenever we do we try to maintain the integrity of what was being said. So thanks again for your participation, and we look forward to providing you with another year of The Bradwell News.

DAVID EYRE

Irene Steven Elizabeth and Robert Eyre would like to thank all family, friends and work mates for their sympathy and support at the sad loss of David, also for the numerous cards, bouquets of flowers and generous donations totalling £816. This will be given to Weston Park Hospital in David's memory.

PARISH COUNCIL NOTES

Brook Weed Clearance

In past years this work has been done for us by Bradda Dads, but health and safety considerations caused them to decline last year. In any case the great mass of weed, which had developed over the last two years, meant that heavy machinery was necessary. It was therefore decided at our July meeting to accept a commercial quotation for £1200, for the removal and disposal of the weed, in time for Gala Week. This was the best offer received as the result of our tender process, and the contractor also agreed to remove the large stones, which Severn Trent had left in the stream after completion of their foul-flood alleviation scheme. We thank Dick Morley and Henry Walker for allowing access to their land for the contractor's equipment and Brookside car-owners who heeded our request to park elsewhere on the day.

Some residents have expressed the view that weed growth has been aided by silt deposits on the river-bed. However, the environment agency do not accept that the river bed has risen significantly or that silt needs to be removed to aid flow. They also maintain that the weed is part of the river eco-system. That may be so, but it is also unsightly, smelly in hot weather, a trap for refuse and a haven for rats.

It seems, therefore, that it will be necessary for us to carry out this work annually, at Parish expense, unless we can obtain grant funding.

Bradwell Edge Footpath

DCC Highways Dept. have apologised for misinforming us about an application for opening this Bridleway to all traffic. Apparently no application has been made.

As reported in an earlier newsletter, we have previously held discussions with Henry Walker and Highways Dept. regarding moving the line of the footpath into the old Holloway, which zigzags up the lower part of the Edge. We believe this would make Bradwell Edge more accessible to walkers and we understand that our proposal is still under consideration.

OBITUARY

Mrs Doris Hare of Burton Close Nursing Home died on 13th July in Calow Hospital, aged 87 years. Born in Ashford-In-The-Water she was the only daughter of Mr Tyas and Mrs Minnie Gratton. She was educated at Ashford Church of England School before going to work at the Metal Box Company in Mansfield, where she met her future husband, Stanley, and then at Rogers Knitting Factory in Bakewell. She married Stan and ran a small tea room while he worked as a painter and decorator for Shepherds in Bakewell. After 22 years in Ashford they moved to Great Longstone, where they stayed for 6 years before moving to Bradwell, where Doris lived for 27 years. She finally went to live with her son, Nigel for 3 years before moving in to Burton Close.

Doris was fond of knitting, dancing and playing the piano until illness curtailed these activities. She leaves sons Nigel and Louis, daughters-in-law Jennifer and Dorothy and three grandchildren.

A service and cremation took place at Hutcliffe Wood on 25th July and her ashes will be interred alongside those of her husband at Ashford.

BRADWELL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Outing to Bugsworth Basin

24 people braved a cold evening to join the Bradwell Historical Society's visit to the Bugsworth Basin on 19th July. An historian from the Basin's Restoration Society provided an expert and enthusiastic guide of both the historical features and modern restoration of the Basin. It's well worth a visit!

MANY THANKS

Joyce Middleton and family would like to say thank-you to everyone for all the get well cards, and good wishes, offers of help, and the lovely flowers from the Chapel after her recent stay in hospital. Also the basket of fruit from the Ebenezer Trust..

THE NIGHT SKY

We are going to start running a series of articles explaining some of the more significant objects visible in the night sky. This month, look to the west after sunset and you will see a brilliant "star". This object is not a star at all, but is the planet Venus, currently setting later and later after the sun and so getting higher in the sky every night. Venus is the brightest object in the sky after the sun and moon, and it is so bright because it is permanently covered by clouds, which reflect back all the sunlight which falls on it. Seen in a telescope, Venus would look like a small crescent moon.

EVELYN MEDICAL CENTRE

Over the last three months, the Evelyn Medical Centre has had 52 appointments missed by patients who did not let us know they could not attend. Whilst we understand that there may be a good reason why you cannot keep your appointment, please let us know as soon as possible, so that other patients can be given your appointment. This way, our policy of always being able to give an urgent appointment on the day is not compromised.

Many thanks for your co-operation.

BRADWELL CHRISTIAN AID WEEK COLLECTION, 2005

Many thanks to all who helped with or supported this very worthwhile cause. We raised the magnificent total of £1,849.17. Next year's collection will be organised by Brian and Helen Gillham. I thank them for taking over this job from me.

REBELLION KNOLL WI BRADWELL

2005 is the 90th Birthday of the National Federation of Women's Institutes

Rebellion Knoll organised a Coffee Morning and Cake Stall in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, 9th July to celebrate the occasion. A scrumptious Celebration Cake, made and beautifully iced by Mrs. Jean Johnson, was raffled at the end of the morning and each customer received a free raffle ticket. Mr Roy Middleton won Jean's cake, which I understand was enjoyed by himself and his wife, who had only sent him out for a pork pie!

Members have had the opportunity to buy Commemorative badges. A 90th Birthday Book entitled "Simple Solutions" is being printed by the Federation.

The usual monthly meeting was held on the 13th July, in the Sports Pavilion. Mrs. Sheena Darwent and her daughter Emma, came along and instructed Members in the art of "Making Greetings Cards". Everyone agreed they had had a most enjoyable and rewarding evening, and departed proudly taking with them a greetings card made under the watchful eyes of Sheena and Emma who were thanked for their prowess.

As there will not be a meeting in August, Members are having a walk round Tideswell on the 17th August, followed by supper in Litton Village Hall.

The next meeting will be on the 14th September in the Sports Pavilion, Bradwell, when the Speaker - Keith Whatlin will be giving a talk on "Ancient Greeks"

Visitors are always welcome!
